STORY:

In 1859, the first wave of fortune seekers arrived in Colorado. Nearly three decades later, two of them unearthed a 13.5-pound gold nugget—the largest ever found in the state. Wrapped in a blanket and paraded through Breckenridge, it became known as “Tom’s Baby.” While Vin ’59 honors the pioneering spirit of the early prospectors, 13.5 Red Blend celebrates their rarest find. Selected from our finest barrels, this wine is bold, layered, and built to last—crafted in tribute to those moments of pure, hard-earned gold.

TASTING NOTES:

13.5 is a multi-vintage blend comprised of various vintages of our Vin ’59 Red Blend. Once this well-aged blend is assembled it was then aged in bottle for an additional year before release. With great depth of character and rich complexity, our pinnacle wine is a pure and artful expression of Grand Valley and Colorado’s rugged terroir that shapes our wines. Robust and full of flavor, it opens the senses like a walk in the woods before alluring flavors of dark fruits and warm spices complete the journey. A result that is pure gold!
