VINTAGE NOTES - 2024:

2024 in Horse Heaven Hills was a vintage of resilience and refinement. After a frosty eye-opener in January, the vines bounced back with minimal winter damage. A cool, slow spring eased into warm summer days, beautifully offset by cold nights that kept acids taut and flavors fresh. Harvest unfolded with care — no rush, just precision — letting fruit ripeness and character develop naturally. The result: wines with intense fruit, sharpened structure, and that crisp tension that gives Horse Heaven its signature lift. Volume is slightly down, but quality is up — this year, depth and elegance win.
