STORY:

Crafted from our estate-grown fruit, this sparkling wine is a bold fusion of tradition and innovation. Using a unique method that marries the natural, lively essence of pét-nat with the Charmat method, it bursts with vibrant, refreshing bubbles. The result is a wine as untamed as Colorado's high desert—full of energy, spontaneity, and adventure. Each bottle captures the rugged spirit of the West, delivering a naturally effervescent experience that's as bold and unforgettable as the landscape itself.

TASTING NOTES:

The spirited, colorful label is a preview of what's inside the bottle. A vibrant array of strawberry soda, candied orange plus peaches and cream on the nose leads to a burst of fresh apricot and nectarine. The long finish carries a touch orange vanilla crème and an empty glass.

VINTAGE NOTES - 2025:

The 2025 Colorado vintage was driven by an early, warm growing season that allowed fruit to ripen beautifully and evenly across the Grand Valley. The reds are deeply concentrated and stunningly expressive, showing rich color, layered dark fruit, supple tannins, and a confident structure that promises both immediate pleasure and aging potential. The whites are equally compelling—vibrant and aromatic, with generous fruit, bright natural acidity, and a polished texture that keeps them fresh and energetic. Altogether, 2025 is a standout vintage defined by intensity and balance.
