STORY:

Celebrate Your Epic Snow Day with our CO.SECCO!

You've just wrapped up an epic snow day, or maybe you're dreaming of your next powder adventure. What better way to celebrate than with our limited-edition sparkling wine, crafted in collaboration with OpenSnow—your go-to for the most accurate weather forecasts, snow reports, high-resolution weather maps, and ski conditions. Grown with love in Colorado's Grand Valley, these lively, fruit-forward grapes create a sparkling wine that blends the artistry of Italian winemaking with the exhilarating spirit of the Rockies. Each sip bursts with vibrant bubbles, fresh floral aromas, and a unique hint of alpine minerality. Perfect for toasting your day on the slopes.

TASTING NOTES:

CO.SECCO, crafted in the Charmat method, a tank fermentation process famously used for Italian Prosecco, delivers a vibrant and refreshing profile, featuring lively bubbles and crisp notes of green apple, lychee, and citrus zest. Its bright acidity and clean finish make it both a sophisticated and approachable sparkling wine, perfect for any occasion—whether paired with food or enjoyed solo.
